How to Take the Judgment Profile

This is a two part assessment that is very unique and will not ask you how you feel.
It is not a test with 'right' or 'wrong' answers.
Be honest with yourself --- second guessing yourself or the assessment will reduce the reliability.

There are two sets of 18 items to rank from 'best' to 'worst'. Take time to review them before you rank them. The item you put on top you should have the greatest level of goodness; the item on the very bottom should be the worst or most negative. You can start with the good or the bad or work your way to the middle from both extremes.

1. Click the plus (+) or minus (-) buttons next to work or phrase: The good (+) items turn green and the bad (-) items will turn red. The system will not record your responses unless you do this.
2. Sort the words from Good to Bad: Drag the items to the open box to the right of the list. Keep dragging them until you have ranked them in order from the best at the top to the worst at the bottom. The system will automatically move down the other items. Take as long as you need to sort them.
3. Note the difference between the two sets of 18 items:
   - The first set is about things in the world. Rank these items as they relate to each other in levels goodness or badness in the world and not to your personal life.
   - The second set consists of reflective statements related to yourself and you need to rank them by the level of goodness or badness as they relate to you.

Follow your initial reaction: First instinct will be the most accurate. Do not ask other people for their opinion or attempt to answer how you think you should. Most people are able to complete the ranking of all words or phrases in ten to fifteen minutes.

Navigation Reminders

1. Click on the next or previous buttons to go back and forth between the two sets of rankings.
2. Click on the bottom button to save your work and finish the assessment.
3. A period of inactivity in excess of twenty minutes will time you out of the system and you with then need to reenter the system and start over.

MISTAKES TO AVOID

- Not prioritizing: Don't stop after identifying the good and bad and double check your rankings!
- Ranking world items by personal importance: Rank by the relative goodness or badness of one item to another and not by how much you like it or it affects you in your daily life.
